Susanne Pohlmann: Picture "Flow and Fade 1" (2024)

€3,800.00

In this expressionist acrylic painting, I have captured the infinite depth and mystical splendor of the ocean. With dynamic shades of blue and white that flow smoothly into one another, a feeling of freedom and untouched nature is created. This work is intended to invite the viewer to immerse themselves in a sea of tranquillity and inner peace and to feel the calming power of the marine world, which fills every room with life and energy.
