

Mirek Kuzniar: Picture "Avenue des Champs-Élysées" (2023)

Paris in autumn. On a wet autumn day, people stroll along the Champs-Élysées. On the right, a couple in love can be seen embracing and walking past one of Paris' green advertising columns. Green leaves can still be seen on some trees, showing us that it is early autumn. And the bluish cloudy autumn sky is reflected on the wet boulevard of the city of love. Oil painting on canvas in spatula technique. Professional stretcher frame of German manufacture, made of coniferous wood. Covered by hand. August 2023.
