

Heinz Stoewer: Picture "Avatar" (2020)

€3,250.00

This painting was inspired by the movie Avatar and the underlying message of protecting, preserving and possibly defending nature. At the same time, it can also be seen as a tribute to the beauty of the male body and the connection between man and the nature that surrounds him. Free-swinging, abstract leaf shapes surround the man's body in blue tones and integrate him into his natural surroundings. Nature and man are connected with each other in harmony and are not in confrontation. The work is signed and dated on the back. It was exhibited from 14.9. - 30.10.2024 in the exhibition "Mensch form(t) Natur im RaumdurchKunst in Sindelsdorf.
