

Michael Krähmer: Picture "Alb dream IV" (2007)

€2,300.00

A picture for dreaming. But not a nightmare, but a dream of the Swabian Alb. It is the magical hour between day and night, where the soul comes to rest and the mind becomes clear. The picture is painted using the time-consuming resin oil glazing technique of the old masters. Transparent oil paint mixed with dissolved resin is glazed with a brush in many wafer-thin layers, creating shimmering, almost three-dimensional color spaces. The creation of such a painting takes up to a month.
