

Olamboray: Picture "Expect the unexpected" (2020)

€5,080.00

Originally, there were two tracks, two possibilities, to continue my journey, but as the picture evolved, the second track saw no train arrive, no timetable, no destination, leaving me with one major direction taking shape. The clock is set and the train is waiting, the suitcase on the platform. This is our beloved Lasne streetcar station, and the Lasne church can be seen in the reflection of the windows. On the second floor, a couple meet secretly, one last encounter before disappearing. In these crazy times we live in, the two children are there to remind us that anything can happen at any moment, taking us by surprise, out of the blue, and I love this feeling of not knowing what tomorrow will be made of, and of continuing to pursue my dreams, to follow the course of life. The unknown, the mystery, the surprise, the unexpected. The dream is alive. I feel unstoppable..."
