

Ute Meyer:
Picture "Sunny afternoon / Baltic Sea / Ærø / Borgnæs" (2023)

€700.00

I painted this picture on location on a sunny day in March on the Danish island of Ærø. It is a plein air painting with an impasto application of paint that emphasizes the plasticity of the vegetation and the water. The powerful, expressive brushstrokes reflect the energy of the water and the light-flooded landscape. I have captured the glowing light of the coast in an impressionistic manner. The sea glows blue-green. The red roofs of a house are indicated in the background. The picture support is made of wood and has a steel wire for hanging. The edges are white. The picture can be hung up directly. My signature is on the front.
