

Hasso Heybrock: Picture "cloud symphony" (1999)

€1,250.00

Here in the north, the landscape is flat and you have a clear view of the sky above the low horizon. The spectacle that unfolds there always inspires and touches me, sometimes it is dramatic and oppressive and then again harmonious and liberating. This dynamic is shown in "cloud symphony" and captures the mood on an afternoon on a warm summer's day. Fair weather clouds and the light of the sun leaning towards the horizon are the protagonists in this scene, which invites you to let your thoughts run free and dream.
