

Heinz Stoewer: Picture "not an easy decision" (2023)

€1,700.00

Irregular shapes in various shades of red and blue "move" on an iridescent light green background. The arrangement of these shapes creates recognizable lines and islands of colour catch the viewer's eye. The result is a mixture of gentle movement and calm that invites the viewer to take a closer look at this abstract composition. The asymmetrical forms, which are characteristic of the artist's entire oeuvre, are clearly noticeable. The abstract painting was inspired by memories of walks in nature. The painting was on display at the Bayrischzell art exhibition in 2023. It is dated and signed on the back.
