

Ralf Schmidt: Picture "Gentlemen Agreement" (2021)

€2,350.00

A picture for peace. It is directed against corrupt arms deals worldwide. The background scene is based on the current situation in Syria, with two business partners in the foreground smiling contentedly as they finalize their deal. I had seen some pictures from there and was horrified at what it looks like. Approximately 9.5 billion dollars are spent on arms exports worldwide. Or two players who, recognizing the futility of mutual destruction, decide to make a new start together.
