

Sabrina Seck: Picture "money never dies" (2022)

€3,200.00

The richest duck from Duckburg's favorite thing was money. He guarded his fortune by any means necessary. Unfortunately, even the last shirt of the popular duck has no pockets. But he wouldn't be the richest duck if he didn't have dollar signs in his eyes even after his death...:-) The work was painted/sprayed with acrylic paints in combination with an airbrush. It was then covered with a layer of Epodex resin. This layer leaves a beautiful, reflective sheen. Glitter elements were worked into the resin.
